But first I must pay the debt of gratitude which I owe to the members of the Zoological Club, individually and collectively, for the honour of having been elected your Chairman for the year just past, - an honour due solely to your kindness, not to my deserts; and I fear that I have executed the duties of the situation very imperfectly, for I began the fascinating pursuit of zoological science too late in life to expect to make great proficiency in it. I feel that the Chairman of this Society should combine, like my immediate predecessor, long experience in...
