When Girls Became Lions (Paperback)

By Valerie J Gin, Jo Kadlecik

BookBaby, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The memory of a strong woman is a sanctuary And so begins our story. It s 1983. Teacher Bailey Crawford and a bunch of rag tag girls are about to make history as their school s first, and only, state champions. But few in town care; they re only girls, after all. It s not until twenty-five years later in 2008 when new coach Reynalda Wallace discovers their story and recognition for the champs finally arrives. In the process, Rey learns how much of her own lifepast and presentis bound to those first athletes whose struggle she never knew existed. Until now. ----- The novel moves between 1983 and 2008 as the two coaches stories progress, capturing the impact Title IX legislation had on one mid-western town. It is a unique literary contribution to both women s fiction and the ordinarily male-dominated sports genre as it celebrates women s friendships against the backdrop of sport history. It is a story for everyone from soccer dads and college coaches to professional athletes, high school competitors and the many women and...
