Margarita falsing THE Majors wife returned to the Lofsjo district a few days before Christmas, but it was not till Christmas Eve she came to Ekeby. She had been ill during all the journey. She had inflammation of the lungs and high fever, still no one had ever seen her happier or heard more kindly words from her lips. The daughter of the Broby parson, who had been staying with her since October at the foundry at Alfdal, sat by her side in the sledge and would willingly have hastened the journey, but she could not prevent the old lady from stopping the horses and calling up each passer-by to ask for news. How is it with you here in Lofsjo she asked. All goes well with us, was the answer. Better times are coming. The crazy parson at Ekeby and his wife are helping us. ; A good time has come, said another. Sintram is gone. The Ekeby cavaliers work; the Broby parsons money was found in the steeple of Bro church. There was enough to raise again the glory and honor of Ekeby and to supply bread to the hungry. Our old Rector has awakened to new life and strength, said a third. Every Sunday he tells us about the coming of Gods kingdom. Who would sin any more The millennium approaches. The Majors wife drove on, asking all she met: How is it with you Are you in any want And the fever and the...
