At all events, replied Lady Merivale cheerfully, they can not complain of me as a lady nursed in pomp and pleasure. Her cordial voice brought her husband round. And so you would like to ride about and canvas, Isabella? You know I told you the other day that you had the elements of intrigue and ambition within you! Well, we will all go and look at our ancestors to-morrow. I cannot make it out, said Winwood, again disengaging himself from the circle, and thinking aloud, rather than seeking a response from his double. D--d odd, Winwood! Do they give any supper here, I wonder? On the morrow the visit to St. Jude s took place. It is true that Winwood, keen-eyed as a lynx to aught that concerned him, remarked that the shadow had returned to Lord Merivale s brow, and that his...
